The musical score is written for piano and voice in 4/4 time. It consists of five systems of music. The first system includes a key signature change from C major to D major (indicated by two sharps) and a tempo change to 'Allegretto' (indicated by a '7' over the first measure). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line of chords in the left hand. The vocal part enters in the second measure with a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The second system continues the piano accompaniment and vocal melody. The third system introduces a key signature change to D minor (indicated by two flats) and a tempo change to 'Andante' (indicated by a '7' over the first measure). The piano part continues with the same accompaniment pattern. The vocal part continues with a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment and vocal melody. The fifth system concludes the piece with a final chord in the piano part and a final note in the vocal part.

The image displays a four-system musical score for piano. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a series of chords and a melodic line, while the bass staff provides a harmonic foundation with chords and a few moving notes. The second system continues this pattern with more complex chordal structures and melodic development. The third system shows a continuation of the musical ideas, with some measures featuring more active melodic lines in the treble. The fourth system concludes the piece with sustained chords in the treble and a few final notes in the bass. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 7/8.
